Dresden, December 27, N. S.

WE have Accounts from Poland, that there has been great ſtrugling at Cracow about the Electing of Deputies for the approaching Diet: The Party againſt the Court had a Mind to prevent M. Ozarowsky's being choſen there, as before, (becauſe being the firſt Palatinat, it gives Title to the Function of Marſhal of the Diet till one is elected) which they were likely to ſucceed in; therefore Means were found to break up the Dietine, without electing any Perſon; and M. Ozarowsky is ſince choſen at Zator, which gives him the ſame Rank, as if he had been for Cracow; that Dietine not ſubſiſting.

Copenhagen, Dec. 27, N. S. The Court has been ſome Time at Friedericksberg, notwithſtanding the Rigour of the Winter, which is extraordinarily ſevere. Major General Pretorius, the late Governour of Cronenburgh, being dead, that Poſt is now given to Major General Reventeldt, who was Secretary at War in the laſt Reign.

Hamburg, Dec. 30, N. S. The Dutcheſs of Bevern ſet out from hence laſt Saturday Morning, with the Princeſs her Daughter, and went directly to Arensboek to the Dutcheſs Dowager of Holſtein-Ploen; but Prince Anthony Ulrich, her Son, accompanied by M. Knyſted and Major Heimburgh proceeded on his Journey to Schwerin by the Way of Lubeck, where he arrived on Sunday Morning, and that Evening at Wiſmar, where he lay that Night, and it is thought that he arrived Yeſterday at Schwerin. It is generally believed that his Highneſs will ſtay two or three Days with Duke Charles Leopold of Mecklenbourg at Schwerin, and then proceed on his Journey to Petersbourg. It is reported, that the Czarina has promiſed this Prince a Penſion of 6000 Rubels a Year, and a Regiment, until he marries the Princeſs of Mecklenbourg.
